They are lying about Hurricane Otis in Acapulco

They are accurately stating max wind speed and then lying about the category. The max wind speed recorded was 165 mph. That was gust speed. However, hurricanes are rated by max SUSTAINED, not gust. Cat 5 hurricanes gust up to 280 mph and sometimes higher. What hit acapulco was a robust cat 2.

Important: Fox is reporting this to be the strongest pacific hurricane ever to hit Mexico. What about Patricia then, which they called a cat 6 but I went to the landfall area and it was only tropical storm damage?? What does it all mean? Obviously lies for the "climate change" scam.

Yes, Acapulco got clobbered but that's what hurricanes do, there is a reason why all of them, even category 1 will be rated far stronger than any storm. Literally all the trees are still standing, even on the beach. Cat 4 and up means there are no trees left anywhere. That alone kills the lies about Otis.

The enemy is inside my gates

The landlord started dating a Jew. He keeps her up all night listening to audio of a female voice from a speaker and is clearly brainwashing her the same way they got Claudia. Nice. How long until it all explodes? You guess.

Someone claiming to be a "JS" is doing interviews and "not running his web site" because he's in hiding after "trouble".

He's probably the new "boyfriend" of the landlord too.

For the record: I am not doing any interviews with anyone and have not done a single thing since Lahaina because old friends in intelligence confirmed Claudia has a cartel trying to cash me in. They broke off their activities since I posted about them being tracked (which probably surprised them) when they found out their fancy spyware got one upped but the NSA is the NSA after all and favors are favors. I broke my silence because of that stupid KIKE that showed up a few days ago.

Israel:

Very belated post but I had no intentions of ever posting again, this work has run it's course and if people are not awake yet I can't help them. It also annoys me to see 500,000,000 views on videos of orbees in swimming pools and craptacular nothing views on issues that matter. It also annoys me to see Michael Baxter of Real Raw News get 3x the hits I do when I do everything possible to keep it real and Baxter openly stated to the MSM he publishes crap that sounds real, just to get a laugh when people post it as real. Come on now folks, Real Raw News is an admitted parody site that gets posted as legit. More than stuff that is legit. So why even bother with real strawberry when everyone wants the fake flavor?? Tired of it.

Anyway, Israel.

Israel never got attacked by Palestine. This is all a setup to set the precedent for the building of the temple satan will rule from and they have to make it happen. They just got tired of waiting, Al Aqusa has to go. Everyone says "the dome of the rock" has to go but "the dome of the rock" is nothing, the real spot the temple will be is a large and very boring looking mosque (totally unremarkable other than that it is large) called Al Aqusa that is within a stone's throw of the dome. Chances are the dome will still be there when the temple is built, catching the unaware off guard, expecting the temple satan will rule from to still be built.

Claudia Scheinbaum will be the next Mexican president, and YEP. SHE'S A JEW.

The scriptures are clear: And he causeth all, small, great, rich, poor, free, bond - to recieve a mark . . . they do not say "causeth all except the Mexicans" and Claudia Scheinbaum will make it happen. Mexico has the largest cash economy in the world, and something grave had to happen to change that. It has. She'll be prez and she won't even steal it. She infiltrated Morena and will now overtake it. Can't beat em, join em and then do the wipeout.

It had to happen. I kept thinking something had to happen because the rest of the world is so advanced towards the satanic agenda compared to Mexico that someone had to put it on speed dial to get Mexico caught up. These poor schmucks don't know what is coming. She'll do the lockdowns Obrador refused during the next "outbreak" and spawn the dirty work from that. If she does not, and actually ends up being legit like Aaron Russo, America

I am considering posting audio files

(commentary on the issues) I will record on a cheap $8 camera that I bought that has no bluetooth and no way to track it. Despite being sub toy priced new, the pictures are OK, the video is good, and the sound is excellent. So why not walk around with that doing recordings of audio since it can't be tracked and then posting it from cyber cafe's like I am posting now? I am officially offline now, by choice but I can still post from cyber cafe's.

Looks like the CIA got the ball rolling with another mass shooting bested only by the Harvest Festival.

A huge one in Maine. I wonder how many Americans will grovel their guns in when the order is given . . . . or if this shooting is even real. It does not have to be any more real than AI can muster.

Anyway, that's it for now.

"Video shot from a sailboat offshore proves there was no wind on the ocean from any hurricane and that the winds in lahaina were local only to lahaina. How could that happen? Weather mod."

BLOCKBUSTER: IRREFUTABLE PROOF LAHAINA WAS AN ACT OF WAR

NO ONE ELSE HAS THIS, I FOUND IRREFUTABLE NEEDLE IN THE HAYSTACK PROOF, SCROLL DOWN.

BOOOOOOM! ROCK SOLID PROOF THE WINDS IN LAHAINA WERE AN ACT OF WAR CAUSED BY THE WEATHER MACHINE

Video shot from a sailboat offshore proves there was no wind on the ocean from any hurricane and that the winds in lahaina were local only to lahaina. How could that happen? Weather mod.

I found the holy grail. But for people to understand this, I first have to post the Beaufort scale and remind people that the winds in lahaina were at least 80 mph, and were strong enough to knock power poles over. I also need to point out that the hurricane that was given credit for the winds was 500+ miles away, and I have proof that hurricane contributed ZERO mph to the winds in lahaina, which were in reality local, only covering Lahaina and nearby areas.

The Beaufort scale, wave height, and how it proves the weather machine and not a hurricane made the winds.

The Beaufort scale is a formula for wind speed and wave height. And there is a direct correlation that is always consistent. Here it is, read it and weep, this, along with the video from a sailboat a mile offshore proves 100 percent that the winds in Lahaina were completely local and that the burning had to be an act of war.

Beaufort Scale
Beaufort number	Description	Wind speed	Wave height	Sea conditions
0	Calm	< 1 km/h	0 m / 0 ft	Sea like a mirror
		< 1 mph
		< 1 knot
1	Light air	1-5 km/h	0-0.2 m / 0-1 ft	Ripples with appearance of scales are formed, without foam crests
		1-3 mph
		1-3 knots
2	Light breeze	6-11 km/h	0.2-0.5 m / 1-2 ft	Small wavelets still short but more pronounced; crests have a glassy appearance but do not break
		4-7 mph
		4-6 knots
3	Gentle breeze	12-19 km/h	0.5-1 m / 2-3.5 ft	Large wavelets; crests begin to break; foam of glassy appearance; perhaps scattered white horses
		8-12 mph
		7-10 knots
4	Moderate breeze	20-28 km/h	1-2 m / 3.5-6 ft	Small waves becoming longer; fairly frequent white horses
		13-18 mph
		11-16 knots
5	Fresh breeze	29-38 km/h	2-3 m / 6-9 ft	Moderate waves taking a more pronounced long form; many white horses are formed; chance of some spray
		19-24 mph
		17-21 knots
6	Strong breeze	39-49 km/h	3-4 m / 9-13 ft	Large waves begin to form; the white foam crests are more extensive everywhere; probably some spray
		25-31 mph
		22-27 knots
7	High wind, moderate gale, near gale	50-61 km/h	4-5.5 m / 13-19 ft	Sea heaps up and white foam from breaking waves begins to be blown in streaks along the direction of the wind; spindrift begins to be seen
		32-38 mph
		28-33 knots
8	Gale, fresh gale	62-74 km/h	5.5-7.5 m / 18-25 ft	Moderately high waves of greater length; edges of crests break into spindrift; foam is blown in well-marked streaks along the direction of the wind
		39-46 mph
		34-40 knots
9	Strong/severe gale	75-88 km/h	7-10 m / 23-32 ft	High waves; dense streaks of foam along the direction of the wind; sea begins to roll; spray affects visibility
		47-54 mph
		41-47 knots
10	Storm, whole gale	89-102 km/h	9-12.5 m / 29-41 ft	Very high waves with long overhanging crests; resulting foam in great patches is blown in dense white streaks along the direction of the wind; on the whole the surface of the sea
		55-63 mph
		48-55 knots
11	Violent storm	103-117 km/h	11.5-16 m / 37-52 ft	Exceptionally high waves; small- and medium-sized ships might be for a long time lost to view behind the waves; sea is covered with long white patches of foam; everywhere the
		64-72 mph
		56-63 knots
12	Hurricane force	≥ 118 km/h	≥ 14 m	The air is filled with foam and spray; sea is completely white with driving spray; visibility very seriously affected

The waves out on the water prove beyond all doubt that the natural winds were only about 4-7 mph. There was no hurricane causing the wind, if there was, this image would not be possible.

Look, it's so calm out on the water that a bird is happily sitting on the sailboat rigging, and looking out to sea there are no significant waves, the surface is still glassy. look at the beaufort scale and see what wind speed will give a glassy appearance with absolutely no white caps.

Now look at this zoom in to the other side, where the local winds local ONLY TO LAHAINA were stirring up the water near shore, but not for a long enough distance to build large waves. This proves that only Lahaina had winds, how could that happen??? It's called atmospheric heating from a Haarp device, and they were considering how much power the system got (environmentally conscious or perhaps just cheap) and they did not bother with putting high winds more than a quarter mile offshore.

This report is so conclusive it is admissible as evidence. This would win in court.

Conclusion: no strong wind at sea, and horrific wind on land, right where needed, proves the Lahaina fire was an act of war, case closed.

If the wind was made by a hurricane as stated in the official BS, the waves would have been 50 feet tall.

A disaster declaration three weeks before the lahaina fire (the first time in American history a disaster declaration was issued before the disaster happened,) put in place an emergency procedure to handle the disaster which removed power from elected officials and put land management into the hands of an unelected beurocrat who just so happens to want Lahaina to be a "smart 15 minute city". Coincidence???

Closing: Trolls will bash this because they have to if they want their jobs, but the Beaufort scale is not political, and it is accurate.

I have been offline since the incident with Claudia and the cartel.

I figured I would give up after that, but there are very compelling things lately that have to be posted about. I am with a new cell provider so I don't know how this is going to work out but at least I opened this page for editing. we'll see how far I get.

I managed to get the cartel bug and claudia's bugs off my equipment, but I have confirmed via an app from amnesty international that everything is still infected with Pegasus and I can't remove it, maybe an update to their app might work . . . . at least Pegasus is not a resource hog. My internet suddenly started lasting 5x longer, Claudia was eating a vast majority of my data.

Lahaina.

It is hard to decide what topic is most important now, Lahaina or a recently released report by TASS which expressed extreme irritation in the Russian government towards America for running biolabs and releasing diseases on purpose. First Lahaina.

I have been through piles and piles of material on Lahaina. Here are the bullet points on what happened there.

1. Power lines did not start the fire.
2. The hurricane did not produce the perfect wind, I strongly suspect a weather warfare system did.
3. The fire was arson, and even if it was not additionally lit once it reached Lahaina, (it was) but even if that was not done, I think the weather warfare system alone would have done a comparable job.
4. It is absolutely obvious that the fire was re-spawned where needed (to ensure complete destruction where wanted) by a space based laser, which was probably recently launched by Nasa. I am typing this offline so I can't look it up right now, but recently Nasa launched an enormous rocket and I 100 percent believe it launched a weapons platform that will be used to spark fires everywhere.
5. The police did indeed blockade people into Lahina to get the death count as high as possible. Not all of the police were in on this, there were normal cops in with the fire telling people to evacuate and guiding traffic while the rogue cops were keenly placed perfectly to trap everyone and force them to burn to death. Who was in charge of it all? The same police chief that oversaw the Vegas police force during the Harvest Festival shooting in Vegas. FIGURE THE ODDS, that puzzle piece alone is 100 percent proof both the Harvest Festival and Lahaina were government ops.
6. Lahaina was burned for the sole purpose of taking the land, which is why the police barricaded people in. The so-called elite wanted to take the ancestral lands from Hawaiians who were sitting on it indefinitely via contracts with the U.S. government that in effect made the land a protected "indian reservation" for as long as the locals did not sell it off. They were refusing to sell it off. And with many many many ancestries now wiped out, the land is there for the taking.
7. It is a hard reality that not a single private property owned by the island's Jewish inhabitants burned. Not ONE, not ONE SINGLE elitist propety burned, even though there were plenty RIGHT THERE.
8. Prior to the fire, the WEF singled out Lahaina to be re-built as a smart 15 minute city. And the WEF wanted all of Maui to be a "smart island" Therefore, the existing infrastructure was very inconvenient.
9. The elite have expressed concern about Martha's vineyard being too close to the mainland, and about the seasonably cold climate. They want a different Island to hide out on while they burn the world, and Maui fits the bill perfectly.

The above bullet points are certified fact. From these points, here is the story.

Lahaina was burned by the elite who want to take Maui and convert it into a playground sanctuary. They want the population dead and faked a disaster to accomplish that. Most likely they used a recently deployed weapons platform sent up by NASA on "the largest rocket ever launched", a weapons platform that probably also sparked the fires in Greece, Turkey and Canada. It will be used to fake "climate change" - a well known hoax which they are now blaming the wildfires on. With this weapons platform they'll have no problems eliminating "competition and inconvenience" wherever it is, whether it be a car on the highway that "mysteriously caught fire and immediately exploded, killing everyone", a rebel hideout in the wilderness, or the home of an inconvenient doctor that suddenly simply had an instantaneous fully involved fire in their home that left zero time for anyone to evacuate.

Sadly, that's where we are at, and there's nothing anyone can do about it.

Lahaina was just like Jenin in Palestine, including the death toll. Actual death toll in Jenin was 4,500. Let's see if they eventually con Maui down to double digits too. Maui: A land without people, for a people without land!!!

Russian embassy in US blames Washington for trying to manage epidemics

Under the guise of monitoring diseases, Washington is scattering its illegal laboratories across the world, brazenly and with impunity; establishing numerous facilities of this kind along Russia's borders, the Russian Embassy in Washington said in a statement

WASHINGTON, August 17. /TASS/. The US authorities are establishing laboratories across the world in order to be able to manage epidemics in their own interests, the Russian Embassy in Washington said in a statement.

"Uncontrolled dual-use research run by the Pentagon continues to raise questions from the international community. Russia has repeatedly pointed to blatant violations by the US of the Biological Weapons Convention. Washington keeps ignoring grievances, citing a humanitarian aspect of its programs," the statement reads.

"We would like to point out that any good purposes of projects carried out by the US Department of Defense are out of the question. There is evidence proving that the US conducted research involving potential biological warfare agents, and the evidence is significant. There is also proof of attempts to deliberately enhance pathogenic properties of agents causing socially significant infections," the embassy noted.

"Under the guise of monitoring diseases, Washington is scattering its illegal laboratories across the world, brazenly and with impunity; establishing numerous facilities of this kind along Russia's borders. The goal clearly is to be able to generate biological crises at a chosen time and create artificial sites of infection, that is, to manage epidemics," the statement added.

"The Pentagon's activities in Ukraine cause particular concern. The US has dragged dozens of the country's state institutes and private companies into its projects. Civilians and military servicemen in the country have become donors of biomaterials and mere test subjects," the embassy noted, adding: "There is no doubt that such actions require an appropriate legal assessment, particularly by the relevant international institutions."

"The facts about the United States' illegal military and biological activities that were made public by the Russian Defense Ministry make one wonder once again as to what their real goals and objectives are. Common Americans also have mounting questions that require clarifications from the government about the programs that have been sponsored," the statement said. "It's high time Washington admitted that while it is still able to ensure the support of its like-minded nations at multilateral platforms and silence those who have doubts, it won't be able to get away from the claims of its own people," the Russian embassy noted.

Russia stating this is news. However, right from week one of Covid I pinned this on Fort Detrik, where the original release caused, in the area surrounding Ft Detrik, the beginning of the e-cigarette "glass lung" con job. From there, "covid" then spread until it hit China, and once in China a stupid bat story was foisted on the public. Problem: 7 variants in the US and 3 in all of Asia at that time proved it was introduced on US soil. Russia is not stupid about this, any more hanky panky from the US will result in consequences.

Trump's interview with Tucker Carlson hit 230 million views the last I checked.

And Biden won. They will steal it again because no one died for committing the last theft.

Wagner boss Yevgeny Prigozhin shot down by Russia

Shortly after Wagner, a paramilitary mercenary company that is fronting for Ukranian forces had it's main head in Russia - Yevgeny Prigozhin - warn the WEF to halt it's depopulation program OR ELSE, RUSSIA shot down the chartered jet he was on as it approached the Moscow airport.

QUESTION: Who is in bed with who? Ominous. Yes, Russia had a reason (I guess) to shoot down the jet once they found out the real leader of the Ukranian military was on it, but did his statement to the WEF have anything to do with the shoot down? Questions.

Now Wagner is launching drones and threatening to attack Russia outside of political channels. Looks like the wool has been pulled down and the real force behind it all is now exposed, and Wagner guesses it is so powerful on it's own it does not even care. That speaks volumes all by itself.

My latest message to Claudia sent on June 16 2023

This is updated on June 16 from the last thing I posted on the same topic.

An old contact in the NSA busted you

Now, granted, he can't initiate action because what he did was a favor. I allowed him to plant a bug on my phone, (a real one, not the shit you and your "christian friend" used) and then I went walking with my phone for 2 hours. It sent the NSA all the tracking data from your bugs and where the data was sent. He then bugged the locations the data went to, (within minutes) and tracked someone from a cartel who is closely linked to your "christian friend", - someone who activated immediately as soon as I was out with my phone, and he came within 25 meters of me, obviously to check if it was me. You know, your christian friend knows, the associations were too close.

Anyway, you are busted, you really did put trackers on everything and tried to sell me or ransom me or kill me, for whatever reason, actually I know the reason.

Your christian friend was the one who initiated the "parties in the park" for the sole purpose of catching you with her herbal products which they knew you'd take interest in, then she befriended you, drugged you, and had you do all this horrible shit to me so they could take the web site down. You are now a brain washed drone. Now, the NSA friend did not help with the next part, but I think I figured it out -

Marco's wife is Jewish and so is her mom. Your "christian friend" is also a jew by the way - anyway, It is fairly obvious Marco's wife drugged PePe so he would not be able to run the org and they then took over the org, so the web site could be destroyed from that angle too. Also, "they" try to take over all the orgs so Leon was targeted when it got big enough. You've probably received plenty of black scientology. I feel bad for PePe, get rid of that bitch plus her mom and he'll probably in a couple months be fine. That won't happen. Once Jews are in, they stick.

Anyway, even without all this going on you suck anyway, don't expect me to be seen from anymore unless your "christian friend's" cartel manages to nail me, what you did was definitely evil as you said you were, "galaxy destroyer". I don't have to stay around and wait to get bumped off.

If I do not post again, that's exactly what happened.

By the way, Claudia bragged about being such a good shot because auditing revealed she's a more than evil multi generational warrior who at one time "destroyed a galaxy". And she was a good shot, right out of the gate, like a top notch lifer. Could there be anything to this? I had to put a good face on her for the site but things were, in reality, pretty rough. But survivable. Until now.

Alex Soros says he'll be 100X as bad as his dad

And that he will succeed in getting conservatives completely banned from the internet. Probably.

THINGS ARE PICKING UP -

The Bible said the final war against Israel would be "fought by the east". I always figured that would be Russia, but as it turns out China just signed a new strategic pact with Palestine and has vowed, as part of that pact, to provide protection from Israel. That ought to go well.

Meanwhile, it appears war preps are escalating, America is openly flying nuclear bombers over Europe and Russia is escalating as well. If you put off prepping, this is probably it over the next while - all the pieces are in place - how Trump is being handled (communist style handling of political opposition) and those pieces are signalling more strongly than ever that the end is near. What to do? nothing really, I think I bitched on time and Alex Jones certainly did also, I remember him back in the 90's which was soon enough - but due to the fact that people just clicked off to the next story and did nothing it's definitely over now. There is literally no point in running this site.

Remember: The bible clearly dictates during the end days that the events will suddenly escalate even by our perspective (not an eternal perspective) and things will go POOF suddenly, all the nasty stuff in the book of revelations happens within a few years and we already had the DNA corrupting clotshot.

We are on the handle of the hockey stick, you had damn well better be ready.

The train will arrive faster than the speed of sound.

I know you, You are lazy, like me. Not getting "ultimately ready" and instead are keeping your ear to the tracks, listening for the approaching train by reading as much alt media as possible and sifting through MSM lies. But there's a problem with that. I have a hunch "keeping your ear to the tracks" is not going to work this time, that train is coming faster than the sound will arrive and even if you see it, it will be too late to do as much as stand up.

Get ready. Be vigilant. Have patience. "keeping your ear to the tracks" is not going to cut it.

BOOM, BUSTED

An old contact still in the NSA helped me find out what was going on with all the bugs. And Claudia is using her "christian friend" who is really a crypto jew to track me and have a cartel nail me.

Here is how it worked: I knew Claudia was screwing with all my stuff bigly. Had bugs in all of it. To catch this, I allowed my NSA contact to put a real bug on my phone, and I went out walking with it for a couple hours. My phone started sending tracking data to the "christian friend" and a cartel she's probably part of. The cartel then sent someone to go and see if it really was me and the software tracked that person all the way to within 25 meters of me. Busted. BUUUUUUSTED. As it turns out, my primary problem is not American intelligence, IT IS CLAUDIA AND HER SO-CALLED "CHRISTIAN FRIEND". Who owns the cartels? don't be silly now, there's a reason why they are never truly dealt with and that reason is explicitly very crypto Jewish in nature.

Most likely, Claudia intends to have the cartel nail me and hold me ransom. Then she'll use the e-mail list she has to contact key supporters and have them do ransom payoffs. If this happens send nothing, I'd rather be dead.

Additionally, if you send support to claudia that's exactly what you are supporting - someone who's probably just a drone now being manipulated by a Jewish cartel into doing terrible things. She stole the money for my arm surgery ffs plus every last thing I owned, even stuff I owned years before I even knew her, it was a total wipeout. I am not wrong at all for cutting her off.

I was actually surprised they acted that fast. Never left with that phone for MONTHS and they hunted me down INSTANTLY. WOW.

Now that I know it is all Claudia and her harem of hoodlums it's probably not too risky to run this site, that's not what all the bugs are about. Instead, the bugs are about a cartel and MONEY. Obviously I won't be accepting donations, everything I have is whacked and a cartel will just steal it.

I am obviously in deep trouble. UPDATE, MAYBE NOT, It's just Claudia and a harem of hoodlums. I am leaving the following up even though I now know it's not American intelligence I need to worry about. This is old: So I am going to post my "fuckit page" that I have been thinking about doing, ALL OF US are done for if "they" pulled the shit they just pulled, it won't just be me. I don't know how far I will get with this, "they" keep shutting the USB ports off now which is why this is going up piecemeal. No USB ports equals dead text with no keyboard or mouse to post it with. So piece by piece. Here goes.

What do you do when . . . .

1. "They" break an impressive lock to get into your place
2. They rob nothing but it is obvious the computer has been messed with because it has been moved and the case is half cracked open
3. You find an extra folder in the root directory on the computer (where no one ever goes unless you are like me) that was not there before (found by the way the icons lined up, I did not dig the directory yet because the root directory is a bastard)

4. Then the folder disappears when you post about it being put there? They might have only hidden it and I did not check for that, because there's probably other hidden folders anyway so the mess would be deep and I wanted that hard drive outta here . . . . because that's a frameup baby.

5. What do you do when your ISP is DHCP and suddenly your IP is static because it's compliments of a stinger?

What do you do? when you know the end is near?

You say fuckit.

Now, before I get into the "fuckit" part, I am going to point out that "they" have something huge planned and have probably done this to ALL dissenting media voices, a "necessary step" when whatever they have planned requires the lie to remain supreme. There's no doubt I am in trouble if they have pulled this sh*t but the trap has not been sprung yet, there's still a chance to say something at least.

There is going to be either an all new pandemic and forced shot campaign, or a huge war, and framing and eliminating alt voices will be part and parcel with that. Historically it has been that way with war, but this is the first time they pulled the forced shot BS and it's going to be one, the other, or both.

Now that's out of the way, so fuckit.

I am now going to talk about what has really gone on behind the scenes in my life. This is not one of those "confessions" because I am a biblical level hero and have never said it, now I will and I can prove it. Henry Makow, with "Jim Stone is the real deal" And David Icke with "Remember who you are", here is your vindication after all the horrific slander I have received which no doubt made you doubt, and Merit, you can stick it up your *ss,. You were not the only one, but the fact you hung out on the forum the way you did pretending to actually have "merit" still galls me to this day.

I will start by saying no one I have ever been married to has ever posted fuck all about me. Where did all the slander come from? It came from the same A-holes that are trying to put Trump in prison now. No one who ever posted any sort of slander had anything official against me or anything to bitch about, it was simply targeting an "enemy" to destroy it.

Thus far I have prevailed.

So what really happened? Why did I shitcan my life before 2005? That actually did happen, but why?

Because in the winter of 2004/2005 President Bush was going to destroy Iran and I disagreed. I saw "shock and awe" like the rest of us did, and I did not agree. In the NSA I was assigned Iran as my main mission and though I was biased against Iran, I was not stupid either. I knew they were at least, for the most part good people. As long as they were kept in check as far as I saw it, there was no reason to destroy them and I was a serious bastard at keeping them in check, NUMBER EFFING ONE. I handled all the systems that intercepted their communications, talked to the people in the mountains of Iran, THE WHOLE BALL OF SHIT. I knew the entire American intelligence mission in Iran from top to bottom, and was one of those champions who knew stuff far outside by clearance level (like how all the data was smuggled out disguised as film rolls for movie theaters) something I was not supposed to know but I did - and it was all cool because I worked so hard to keep everything in top notch shape.

I am going to just throw an insult out to Kieffer here - you are a prick extreme. When Chewy cut those cables in wideband while I was not even on shift and you stood there with Chewy right in front of me days later and told me to my face right in front of him that I was going to take the rap for it you proved how much you sucked you rotten kike and I did not even hate Jews then. It may have gone down in lore but on an official level I was totally unscathed, everyone knew the truth. Eff you. Now back to the main story -

I knew EVERYTHING about Iran and quite a bit about China, Iran was primary for me, China was secondary and Russia was third. But even with Russia as my third official assignment, I was also #1 at repairing the systems used against Russia, I burned and installed all the hardened operating system chips used against Russia simply because no one else who was "equally qualified" could and knew those systems like the back of my hand, I'd get back after a "weekend break" and there'd be 7 or so offline because "no one could fix them" and I'd have them all up and running before my first break just by watching how the function keys flashed (those damn computers would TELL YOU what was wrong if you could just watch the function keys and understand, (there were 6 rows of 15 function keys on each keyboard that all could light up and those computers would communicate their problems through those keys.) They were dual keyboards with Russian on one side and English on the other, they were HUGE - I'd solve the problem before the boot was even complete just by watching how they flashed. Fix all of the computers attached to them (giant thousand pounders) before my first break, All the time was spent getting parts, not solving problems. I was absolutely #1, all the operators loved me and requested me even in the submarine tracking systems . . . .

THAT is the level I was at when I stopped President Bush from destroying Iran, here's how I did it.

I knew the intelligence mission from top to bottom, obviously. I also knew that without good intelligence, the Pentagon would not do jack. The Pentagon is full of pansies now who don't want to write out letters to countless mommies wondering what happened to their kid - they now want pushbutton wars that go as smoothly as a trip to the mall - and I knew that if I could wreck that they'd do NOTHING. And I could wreck that, I was the CHAMP.

At that time, I was out of the NSA, even past the point of limitations for prosecution (but that won't keep you alive, I expected to die for this) - I also knew the psy op side of the mission and by listening to the news knew the mission did not change. They were still using the same hardware and the same method - smuggling data disguised as film rolls for movie theaters - it was the same as when I left (those systems kicked ass and were modern, they would not retire them quickly) for example - if some guy in Russia keyed a mic, the system would have him pinpointed on screen in 3 seconds saying "He's right here, at the end of this bridge" and it was all mapped and instant, it did not need satellite confirmation. There were more than 70 of those systems running, they could do a lot - anyway, a big budget item obviously still in use in 2005 -

By the time 2005 came around that was post 9/11 which did not fool me, I was onto 911 right away - and my eyes were fully open about how innocent Iran was by then. I did not regret my mission against them because nothing was done against them when I was working against them, it was all just "national security" for real, the mission was not "stuff Soros pockets" pre WEF bullshit -

But I knew it would become that if I let it happen and "shock and awe" in Iran would be an absolute atrocity - worse than Iraq which was plenty bad and also totally unjustified for the second post-911 go around -

I first checked the consulate in Washington DC (Iran is not allowed an embassy in the U.S.) and deemed it unsuitable. I at least got to see how horrible Iranian movies are, if you ever sat through a Mexican baptism prep class for a kid, you'd know what boring is. That. Anyway -

So I headed to Ottawa Canada K2P 2K2, a real embassy Iran had there. I spent DAYS at Starbucks with a brand new laptop typing up everything about the mission against Iran, knowing damn well it was still 100 percent completely relevant, told them how to find American intelligence assets on their soil, told them all the data was smuggled disguised as film rolls for movie theaters, told them all the intelligence equipment would be located in shipping container boxes in the mountains disguised as cell phone equipment installations hidden in with the antenna stubble all mountains that have a clear line of sight get adorned with - told them to look for tourist hikers in the mountains because that's how the people that manned all that shit got in and out of there - I blew that bastard TO THE MOON, even how "America would just sit there playing war with them like it was a video game" and "How to install communications systems America can't intercept," and "Get your drone program going because that's how you are going to find all this shit and the "hikers" without a whole lot of work" THE WHOLE 9 YARDS

IRAN DID ALL OF IT. ALL OF IT. Including banning American movies, arresting the hikers, ALL OF IT.

AND THERE WAS NO WAR AS A RESULT.

And I was RIGHT. 100 percent platinum certified RIGHT. Iran, which was "2 weeks away from a fictitious bullshit nuclear bomb" in 2004 is now, in 2023, "2 weeks away" from a fictitious nuclear bomb.

And what aggressive things has Iran done during all that time? Answer:

FUCK YOU GEORGE BUSH, PLUS YOUR PIECE OF SHIT DAD. I KICKED YOUR EFFING ASS YOU LYING MURDEROUS SCUM. No "shock and awe" on Iran. Did I make you cry?.

And now to Merit and all those who shitposted about me. Yes, I did indeed abandon my past. You got that part right. But what was I supposed to do? Stay in the system and get killed instantly??? There's a story behind the story lemmetellya - and no wife EVER POSTED JACK.

I thought long and hard before doing what I did. Went over the Bible lots. And you know what I found, and what you'll find also? A book full of heros who dropped everything in their lives to do huge missions only to return to their kids they never saw for 20+ years, WITH HONOR. I saved a nation of 70 million, never asked for a dime or anything else back from Iran for it AT ALL. There was no payoff. Just a lengthy well written document, an intelligent insightful and obviously holy Iranian man in an ultra secure "rumble room" (background noise emanating from a pipe) a 40 minute talk, no strings attached because all I wanted was to avoid "shock and awe" on 70 million totally innocent people - how much more holy can that get? I destroyed myself for them, no strings attached just because it was the right thing to do.

Yes, I blamed my problems on the Fuku report to avoid saying what I just said, that report was good, but not enough for the problems that resulted . . . the problems from that report were explicitly caused by me sticking my head up to post it.

And I was homeless. I knew I could not get a home after doing that for Iran because I'd get whacked instantly. I made my way to Montreal and spent the entire winter up to the middle of February outside, not even going to homeless shelters, I built a well hidden makeshift shelter that had no heat because you can't make smoke and stay hidden - eating out of the garbage, collecting bottles and turning them in, - I had fantasies on New Years about cakes thrown in the trash, looked so hard for them and there were none. It was effing cold and I damn near died that night and the whole time, through all of it, I was calculating: It has been 9 months now, and no war. Only headlines about Iran rejecting Western movies and arresting "hikers", none of which they killed, they only got deported. As I predicted would happen if they listened to me, and they did. How much was what I did worth? today, 45 million life years. That's a lot more than I could live, fair trade if I die tonight . . . .

All the other shitheads who do what I did only did it because they wanted something out of it. A million payoff. Whatever. I was the FIRST EVER who simply did it to do the right thing, and submitted to definite homelessness and a probable death as a result. I woke up the next morning with obvious hypothermia. The alcohol I did my coffee with would not light because it was too cold. Even lighting a candle to heat up the alcohol was not enough and it had to be matches because the butane in lighters would stay liquid. They did not work. It was effing cold. And I could not light a fire and avoid being discovered. I forced myself to go look for cans and eventually warmed up, at least I had many dry layers on.

It is now 2023. Over a billion life-years later. No war. No aggression from Iran, they were as good as I thought they were. I successfully ran this web site. Started over. Got trashed again, (the Pentagon or whoever got to Claudia) and I am probably going to be arrested soon if they broke into my place and did that to the computer. I'm safe in Mexico absent a frame up, but I think it happened. It could soon be adios, because now, so much later, there will be war and they know my history. They don't want me to take action again. But how many people did I give a chance to improve their lives over almost 20 years, or even have life to begin with? How many homes did I save? How many families happened, how many dreams lived? Iranians are not sad people, they have good lives, - in huge part because I saved them and made the last 18 years possible.

That is my legacy. I have dreamed of going back in time and "what I would have done to make my life better" and it always goes back to the same conclusion: Don't change anything, because it would probably wreck the moment I did the right thing.

Some won't agree with what I did. So what. And I'll help Mexico also if I get a chance to when America attacks, I have my feelers on full alert to spring when needed, I know where I'll go to offer help, I know where to. That won't stop my arrest because the people who ordered the frameup are probably not Mexican, though they'll use good Mexican people for their dirty work, the way they used me. Their using me ended long ago. I took my awesome work and stuck it up their ass.
